

Exidy Display Disk Subsystem

Exidy, the price performance leader in microcomputer and disk based systems, introduces the Display Disk Subsystem as a self contained desk top unit that was designed to satisfy the requirements of small business systems, word processing, engineering, R&D, software development, or the advanced hobbyist. The Display Disk Subsystem features include

- Attractive self contained desk top unit
- Industrial grade 12" CRT that includes
 - flicker free P31 phosphor
 - 22MHz bandwidth providing extra sharp characters and graphics
 - contrast and brightness controls
 - coaxial video input-plugs directly into Sorcerer Computer
 - industry standard RS-170 video
- Dual disk drives with 616K bytes of formatted data storage
- Built in controller card — no S-100 interface required
- Supplied with the following software
 - CPM Operating System and Utilities
 - Extended Disk Basic
 - Z-80 Assembler
 - Linker
 - Editor
 - Debugger
 - Cassette Conversion utilities
- 110/220 VAC, 50/60 Hz operation

$2,995 Retail

Data Products Division

390 Java Drive, Sunnyvale, CA 94086 (408)734-9410 Telex 357-499